Dear Parents / Carers,

Update on forthcoming “Special Days”

Following on from previous newsletters, please note that due to staffing absences we are deferring our Forest School focus day to next week (w.c. 28th June). Further details will follow later this week in relation to how this will work for each class.

Also, we will be moving our music focus day to Wednesday 14th July as we had arranged for Dudley Performing Arts to come into school to lead on a brass performance of Jack and the beanstalk.

The children will have the opportunity to see this either live in the hall or via streaming across the school.

Also, throughout the day, children will have the opportunity to partake in a range of musical activities including the making of musical instruments.

Further details will be sent shortly in relation to both of these activities / special days.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. K Beer
Headteacher
