Dear Parents and Carers,

Happy New Year and welcome back everyone.

It has been a great return to learning here at Woodsetton and we now look forward to another fantastic term.

We wanted to take this opportunity to update you on some staff changes. In Badgers, we now have an Early Year's expert teacher in Miss Drake, and our fantastic Assistant Headteacher, Mrs Cook, is taking over Woodpeckers.

Therefore, communication in those classes for parents will be via their teachers in the first instance. Parents' evenings and assembly dates will be forwarded as soon as possible.

On another note, we are aware of the situation with a teaching union calling for potential upcoming strike action. We will inform you as soon as we can in more detail about the situation at Woodsetton. Please be aware that as it stands we may have to shut the school to children on Wednesday 1st February.

Yours sincerely
